“Hey presto!” she said.

“Hey presto!” said Wilma.

Play a game

Hey presto!

To help the child work out what makes sense in a sentence.

- Cover a word in the story. Ask the child to read the sentence, guessing the hidden word.
- When they have guessed, say, "Hey presto!" and uncover it.
- Read to check that the guess was right.
- Then the child does the same for you.
- Have a few turns each.

Other ideas

You can use these ideas straight away, or on another day.

- Find 'took' in the story. Count the number of times it appears.
- Turn three containers upside down on a table. Put an object under one. Slide the mugs around. Ask the child to choose the mug with the object. Say, "Hey presto!" and lift the mug. Was he/she right?
