What's this story about?

On a hot day, the children decide to have a water fight, but Dad ends up soaking the neighbour!

Talk together

Look at the picture on the cover and talk about what Chip is doing. Has the child ever had a water fight? Look at the pictures together to see what happens in the story.

“Stop it!” said Dad.

Dad got a bucket of water.

Words with '-ed'

To help the child to recognise spelling patterns.

- Look through the book and choose a word that ends with '-ed', e.g. 'wanted', 'filled', 'pushed', 'grabbed', 'chased'. Ask the child to find the word. For instance, you could say, "Can you find 'grabbed'? What page is it on?"
- After the child finds and reads it aloud, it is then his/her turn to find another '-ed' word for you to find.
- Have two turns each.

Other ideas

You can use these ideas straight away, or on another day.

- Find words that can be separated easily into simple sounds, such as 'hot', 'Dad', 'got', 'had', 'wet', 'stop'. Say the sounds in the words, e.g. h-o-t.
- Find the longest word in the story. Count the letters to check it against other long words.
