What's this story about?

Wilma buys a creepy-crawly toy. She puts it in the bath. Who is brave enough to pick it up?

Talk together

Talk about insects and spiders. Look at the cover picture. Ask, "What do you think is inside the box?"

Read the story

W = Word recognition C = Language comprehension

- C Read the title. Ask, "What do we call 'creepy-crawlies'?"
- W Ask, "How many letters are the same in 'creepy' and 'crawly'?"
- C Ask, "What do you think will happen in this story?"
- W Read together. When you get to repeated words and sentences, encourage the child to read alone.
- C Page 16, ask, "Did you think Kipper would be the bravest?"
- W Ask the child to read the story again.

Wilma had a creepy-crawly.
She put it in the bath.

Wilma called Dad.

“Get it out,” said Wilf.

“Ugh! I couldn’t,” said Dad.

Wilf called Mum.

“Get it out,” said Wilf.

“Ugh! I couldn’t,” said Mum.

Wilma called Chip.

“Get it out,” said Wilf.

“Ugh! I couldn’t,” said Chip.

Wilf called Biff.

“Get it out,” said Wilma.

“Ugh! I couldn’t,” said Biff.

Everyone called Kipper.

“Get it out,” said Wilf.

“Easy!” said Kipper.

Play a game

Find a word ending with...

This game helps the child to notice the letter at the end of a word.

- Say, "Find a word in the book ending with ..." (the last letter of the word). If you chose 'f' the child might find 'Wilf', but any word ending with that letter is right.
- The child then does the same for you.
- Have two or three turns each.

Other ideas

You can use these ideas straight away, or on another day.

- 'Creepy' and 'crawly' begin with 'cr'. Think of more 'cr' words.
- Look at pictures of minibeasts in a library book.
